FINAL MEETING OF OLD COUNCIL

THREE NEW MEMBERS TO TAKE SEATS AT NEXT MEETING

PROFFER VOTE OF THANKS

Mayor Carle Expresses His Appreciation—Important Business Transacted At Last Regular Session

Address of thanks by Mayor W. F. Carle and Aldermen Kimball, some routine business and at least one long and involved motion, were features of the regular adjourned meeting of the common council last night. The chief business of the session was to elect three new members to take the seats of the three retiring aldermen, and to accept of the bonds and oaths of the newly elected city officials in order that the reorganized council might start in with a clean slate at the next meeting which will probably be called by Mayor Carle for next Monday.

Carle's Talk.
At the close of the business session before the minutes of the previous meeting and the proceedings of last night's session were read, Mayor Carle, in a short address, thanked the aldermen for the good fellowship shown him during his first year as mayor and also for the kindly feeling and desire to cooperate for the best interests of the city shown by the individual members toward their presiding officer and each other.

Vote of Thanks.
Alderman Shorland then moved that a vote of thanks be given the retiring members, and to make it as strong as possible, Mayor Carle instructed the clerk to call the roll. Needless to say, the vote was unanimous and emphatic. Alderman Kimball, who of the three retiring members alone was present, then thanked the former colleagues for the kindly feeling shown him during his two-year term, which he stated had been a pleasant experience.

Land Transfer.
After the matter had been thoroughly investigated by the street assessment committee, discussed in the council and recommended by the city engineer, it was decided to code a certain strip of land on N. River street to the Janesville Cotton Mills company in return for another strip along the river bank near the Fourth Ave. bridge, which would allow the city to straighten up and widen the approach to the proposed new bridge, plans for which, on the supposition that the transfer would be made, had been prepared.

The Transfer.
In brief, the city agreed to execute and deliver a quit claim deed to the Janesville Cotton Mills of all that portion of N. River St., beginning at a point in the east line of said street five feet south of and at right angles from the north east corner of lot 22, Smith and Bailey's addition to the city of Janesville, thence north along the east line of said street to the north line of Race St., thence west on said north line of said street produced 4 feet, thence south parallel to the east line of Race St., and 6 feet therefrom to a point 5 feet south at right angles with said north east corner of lot 22, thence east at right angles 6 feet to the beginning and this is and is understood to be a vacation of all that portion of said street and the same is given in consideration of said Janesville Cotton Mills executing and delivering to the said city of Janesville a quit claim deed described real estate described to-wit: all interest in that part of the north west 1/4 of section 36, 12, known as Water Power lot number 26 in the City of Janesville bounded on the north by a line beginning at a point in the west line of River St., five feet south from a gas pipe monument at the north east corner of lot 22, Smith and Bailey's addition, thence east at an angle of ninety degrees with the line of River St., to the center of Rock River, south by the south boundary line of said lot 26, west by the east line of River St., by thence ending the right to five feet on N. River St., the city agrees to approach, eighteen feet wide as an approach to the Fourth Ave. bridge which at the present time is only sixteen feet and no curved and placed as to make a good bridge such as has been planned, almost impossible.

Accept Bonds.
After examination, Alderman Doherty of the judiciary committee reported that the bonds, and oaths of all the city officials elected including Eugene W. Lowell, alderman from the First Ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Alderman Clark had been found in due form and satisfactory good, and they were unanimously approved. These officers included all the city and ward officials chosen at the last election.

Public Works.
Upon motion of Alderman Kimball, the city engineer was directed to prepare and file in the office of the city clerk, plans and specifications showing the location, size and the kind and quality of material required for the construction of lateral sewers or drains and water and gas service lines to be ordered laid from the main sewer, water and gas mains to the curb line of the lots and parcels of land fronting or abutting upon that part of Wisconsin St., between Second and S. Third streets, also that part of East St., between S. Second and S. Third streets, all in the Third ward.

The street commissioner was also ordered to construct cast iron concrete gutters across W. Bluff St., on each side of Madison St., and across Mineral Point Ave., on the west side of Madison St., also standard cement sidewalk aprons at the southwest corner of Pearl St., and the intersection of Pearl and Washington Sts., at the First ward waterway trough.

In addition, the city decided to repair the dwelling-house owned by the city at the corner of N. Jackson St. and Wall St., at an expense not to exceed seven dollars.

Upon motion of Alderman Kimball, a sewer was ordered constructed during the ensuing year on Prairie Ave., from the present sewer at Hyatt St., north to the middle of the north boundary line of said district 425 feet north from the center line of Walker St. The said sewer to be paid for by special assessment, and the board of public works was directed to make the assessments, cause plans and specifications to be prepared and advertise for bids to do the work.

City Printing.
Alderman Bohlfeld moved that the city clerk be ordered to advertise in the official city paper for sealed proposals from the daily papers of Janesville to print all ordinances, notices and city advertising required by law or resolution or ordinance of the common council to be published in the newspapers and for separate bids to publish such proceedings of the common council as the council may order to be published during said year, such advertisements to contain that all such bids must be filed with the city clerk before 12 o'clock noon of the first Tuesday in May, 1910, according to section 925-46a of the Wisconsin statutes of 1907. The motion was carried unanimously.

City Treasurer's Report.
Upon motion of Alderman Brown, after the report had been referred to the finance committee, the annual report of the city treasurer for the year ending March 31, 1910, was accepted and placed on file. While the facts conveyed were not subjected to a close examination, the members of the committee were found in praise of the painstaking care which had been exercised in its preparation and the beauty and general appearance of the whole document.

Petition Tabled.

TWO UNION HARNESS MAKERS LEFT RANKS

Camp On Rock River Broken and Union Prepares For A Long Fight

Thirty-two of the thirty-four union harness makers who struck at the business of the city on a month ago are still out and indications are that they will stay out until the company accedes to their demands or a compromise is reached by the national officers and the manufacturers' association.

The shrinkage in the ranks of the strikers is due to the fact that two of the former members of the union have gone back to work and at present are being sheltered in the factory. It was a bitter pill for the Janesville union to swallow for one of the backsliders, who came here from Atlanta, Ga., late in February joined the union about a week before the strike was called and, later received about twenty-five dollars by subscription to enable him to return home. He left for Georgia but later returned and resumed work at the factory.

Those members of the union who were severely vexed in a camp on the river, yesterday returned to town, some of them leaving the city to look for other employment in order to reduce the union's strike expense, while others will remain in the city and watch developments at the factory.

That both sides mean to fight fairly and squarely, is shown by the fact that no trouble has yet been experienced and that the company, it is reported, recently refused the offer of a Chicago detective agency to furnish skilled non-union harness makers, protect them while at work and also secure the admission of harness makers to the Janesville local who would report the plans of the union to the company.

In order to raise funds to help the strikers, the union has planned to hold a dance April 28, in Assembly hall. Members of other unions will attend in order to show their sympathy with the strikers.

ALLIE WHEELER IN CANADA GOLD RUSH

Endured Many Hardships to Get Back From the "Porcupine"—Bought Lapsed Option for $25,000.

A. K. Wheeler, formerly of this city and extensively engaged in mining operations in the west, has just returned New York City on a return trip, fraught with much hardship and many perils, from the newly discovered and now almost inaccessible "Porcupine" gold district which is located 100 miles north of Toronto, according to accounts the surface indications in this six by three mile area are the most extensive and richest the world has ever known and the movement of gold-seekers hither bids fair to exceed in magnitude the spectacular rush to lawlode. Prior to July of last year it is doubtful if fifty white men had ever been in this then unexplored region. Now there are 5,000 in the various mining camps.

Mr. Wheeler writes from the Washington to District Attorney John L. Fisher of this city, who has been settling up his interests in a Janesville estate, that his party was the last to get out of the country and that it was necessary to ford ice cold streams, navigate half-frozen lakes, and endure all the dangers and discomforts of the rigorous northern winter in order to get back to civilization again.

The April 14 issue of the Mining Financial News of New York, which he has forwarded to Mr. Fisher, in a lengthy first page news story from one of its special correspondents regarding the "Porcupine," states that already important litigation has been started. Miller & Middleton of "Porcupine" gave J. A. Smith an option on the Miller & Middleton group of claims comprising 120 acres for $100,000, the same to be paid in installments. On the failure of Smith to pay the first and second installments, the same firm gave an option to third parties A. K. Wheeler of 37 Wall street, so the account runs, took an assignment of Smith's option and holds that a forfeiture of the claim gave the vendor the right to pay the whole purchase price any time prior to July 1, 1910.

In his letter to Attorney Fisher, Mr. Wheeler says that he bought the assignment for $25,000; that he stands ready with $100,000 cash to close the deal; and that he has an offer of $100,000 for the property the moment he can gain clear title. He has also forwarded a copy of the Toronto World of April 11 containing a large display and warning over his signature that he will be able to take up the second option on the property in question and enforce it against Miller & Middleton or their assigns, he being the holder of the option given to J. A. Smith on Nov. 8, 1909, etc.

"All Canada smiled the first day I ran this notice," says Mr. Wheeler, "but a few days later some of the foremost barristers called to assure me that my option was valid and could be established."

In conclusion he intimates that it is his ambition, if this deal pans out as he confidently expects it to, to become an extensive operator on Wall street.

He was at the power house with George Pierce assisting in some repair work when he slipped against the shafting. His clothing caught in the belt and he was whirled away rapidly. ## Vinol

"From Dec. 20, '08, to March 1, '09, I had three bad colds, one on top of the other. I got so weak I could hardly get around. Nothing seemed to help me until I began to take Vinol. The change was magic. Three bottles completely fixed that compound cold and stopped the terrible cough—and what surprised me most, at the same time it cured me of a severe stomach trouble that has bothered me for 20 years."

Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine.

Mr. Toppan is one of Lynn's most prominent and highly respected merchants, whose word is as good as his bond.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal, strengthening, body-building elements of Cod Liver Oil and Tonic Iron.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depending upon it, because of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root. It is a booklet containing many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Something About Peroxide Worth Knowing.

Peroxide of hydrogen, the cheap kind, is made in enormous quantities by saturating lake or river water with oxygen gas, which is obtained by acting upon impure metallic dioxide with muriatic acid. It is made to use as a bleaching agent for cotton, flannels, bone, bristles, etc. The bristles of tooth and hair brushes are bleached in this way. The cost of making this peroxide is about 25¢ a gallon; that in four cents a pint. Barrels of it are sold on bargain counters in cheap stores at the quarter price. This cheap peroxide contains arsenic, boron and free muriatic acid or soldering acid, all of which are poisonous, corrosive and irritating to the wound and teeth. There is no simple test for the public to distinguish between the pure and poisonous peroxide. The label or pure food guarantee is no safeguard. This makes it easy for unscrupulous people to dispose of vast quantities of this bleaching peroxide for medical use.

A Pure Peroxide, the drug store kind, on the other hand, is a vastly more expensive article, being made from distilled water and chemically pure dioxide. Great care and exactness is necessary to avoid impurities. It is more the product of a chemist than a cost of material. A ton of gold ore is worth twenty dollars; an ounce of pure gold is also worth twenty dollars.

Ask your doctor or dentist about peroxide, or better still, come in and talk with Mr. Plonk, our graduate pharmacist and chemist, who would be pleased to give you valuable information in regard to pure peroxide or other drugs, and their use.

We sell you a pure peroxide of hydrogen drops, free from poison, absolutely safe to use, our name on every bottle as a guarantee, at 4¢, 25¢, 50¢ a bottle today. Budget Drug Co., Milwaukee and River Sts. The drug store that makes a specialty of drugs.

Mason and Asmuth surprised the men, Fred Kruger and Morris Park by name, while at their work about eleven o'clock Saturday night but willing to be taken in an old flour mill, where after a long search he was found in a dark corner on the fourth and upper floor of the building. ## TELLS SOMETHING OF GRAFT SCOPE

DECLARES INVESTIGATION IS CONFINED TO REPAIRING OF CARS.

REFUSES TO DISCUSS EXTENT

President of I. C. Receives Detective's Report on Eve of Directors' Meeting in New York—Other Roads Deny Idea of Probe.

Chicago, April 19.—While refusing to go into details as to the results of the graft investigation, President Harahan, of the Illinois Central railroad, for the first time, told something of its scope.

"There has been a lot said about our discovery of graft in many departments," he said. "There is nothing to any of this. Our investigation has been confined to the repairing of cars. But I can't talk about it at all until we finish. How long that will take I cannot say. It may be soon. Until that time comes I am going to stick to my original position and I will not discuss the matter in any way."

Directors Meet Today.

Mr. Harahan again refused to deny of affirm reports that the whole graft system will be thrashed out at a meeting of the board of directors in New York today.

"I cannot say what will be discussed at the meeting," he said. "I have not positively decided whether I shall attend the meeting or not."

Mr. Harahan conferred with Robert S. Lovett, president of the Union Pacific road. Mr. Lovett was returning to New York after a western inspection trip. Mr. Harahan did not reveal the subject of their conference.

The president again refused to confirm or deny that an official of the road had made a confession in which was revealed the entire graft system through which the railroad was defrauded out of hundreds of thousands of dollars by its employees and outside concerns.

Burns Makes Final Report.

It was said that the final report of Detective Burns, who has conducted the graft investigation for Mr. Harahan, has been made.

A dispatch from New Orleans said that the recent visit of Detective Burns to that city has resulted in uncovering of irregularities.

Chicago officials of the Santa Fe and Lake Shore railroads denied that these systems were to be investigated for the presence of graft.

BEEF TRUST SECRET EXPOSED.

St. Louis Packer Admits on Stand That He's Under its Control.

St. Louis, April 19.—That the National Packing company of Chicago, the holding corporation of the Armour, Swift and Morris interests, controls the buying and selling prices of the St. Louis dressed beef & provision company was admitted by Charles L. Uppshurst, secretary of the latter company, at the session here of the inquiry into the operations of the "Big Six" being carried on by Attorney General Major before Special Commissioner Daniel Dillon.

The attorney general brought out that the St. Louis company and the National company, although apparently different concerns, have officers in common, have the same auditor, and do not buy from any concern without first letting each other know of the proposed transaction and awaiting the permission of the other branch of the trust.

CALLS TAFT A HANDSOME MAN.

Sculptor Aitken Pays High Compliment to Nation's Executive.

New York, April 19.—That President Taft is "one of the handsomest men in public life," is the declaration of Robert I. Aitken, a New York sculptor, widely known for his McKinley monument in San Francisco, who has just completed the sittings for a marble bust of the president.

"Some will say Taft is too heavy," explained Mr. Aitken, "but after you have been with him for a few minutes you forget his weight, and he impresses you merely as a big man."

"The expressions about the president's eyes shows a greater combination of qualities than I have seen in any other man. His forehead and brows are full of force and determination."

Permit Granted for Power Plant.

The United States government has granted a permit for the erection of a $1,000,000 power plant on the South Platte watershed, a short distance from Denver, Colo., and has also given a right-of-way for the necessary transmission lines. The plant will permit the production of 20,000 electrical horsepower.

At Cross Purposes.

"Poor Mrs. Mixem has good intentions, but she certainly does not make a $1,000,000 power plant on the South Platte watershed, a short distance from Denver, Colo., and has also given a right-of-way for the necessary transmission lines. # Have You Tried?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Cresson, Pa.—"Five years ago I had a bad fall, and hurt myself inwardly. I was under a doctor's care for nine weeks, and when I stopped I grew worse again. I sent for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it as directed, and now I am a stout, hearty woman."—Mrs. Ella E. Alkey, Cresson, Pa.

Third, Wash.—"A year ago I was sick with kidney and bladder troubles and female weakness. The doctors gave me up. All they could do was to just let me go as easily as possible. I was advised by friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am completely cured of my illness, and I am nearly sixty years old."—Mrs. Sarah Leighton, Third, Wash.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the female organism which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND is for sale at Smith's Pharmacy, The Rexall Store, as well as other Patent Medicines advertised in this paper.

TO MOVE PLANT OF HIAWATHA WATER CO.

Sheriff Scheibel is Looking for Place to Store Machinery and Three Carloads of Bottles He Has Seized.

By virtue of an attachment levied on the property some weeks ago to cover some $300 in rental claimed by T. P. Burns, Sheriff R. G. Scheibel is looking for a suitable place to store three carloads of bottles and the bottling machinery of the Hiawatha Water company. The outfit and stock might inventory about $5,000 but would probably bring less than a quarter of that amount if sold under the hammer. So far as can be learned the concern has not been operating to any great extent since it shipped a carload of water last autumn, and its rooms now needed by the Janesville Hitting Mills. It was building up a large business and plans for an extensive bottling plant and pavilion near the Burr lithia springs were under consideration when the period of depression came along two years ago and upset all calculations. At this time, it is understood, N. Parks of Minneapolis, who has been the moving spirit in the enterprise, and his associates either do not feel warranted in investing any more money in the undertaking or are not in a position to do so.

TRY WEIRICK CASE ON MERITS MAY 10

Counsel by Agreement Dispensed With Arguments on Motion to Set Aside Temporary Injunction.

Argument on the motion for dissolution of the temporary injunction restraining Register of Deeds Charles Weirick from his agents from copying the county records was dispensed with in circuit court this afternoon, counsel on both sides agreeing to allow the same to remain in force, excepting that part relating to the surrender of the books, until May 10, when the case of Rock County vs. Weirick will be tried on its merits. The agreement seemed advisable in order to avoid covering practically the same ground twice. In the case of Anton Johnson vs. H. S. Weber, et al, the taking of testimony was concluded this morning and arguments will be heard on May 10.

COTTON DEAL PROBE ORDERED

ATTORNEY GENERAL ORDERS
GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE ALLEGED POOL.

NUMBER SUBPOENAS ISSUED

Department is Reluctant Regarding Proceedings But is Roused to Action by Shutting Down of Mills and Advance in Prices.

Washington, April 19.—A federal investigation, without precedent in this country has been ordered by Attorney General Wickham into the cotton gamblers of New York and other cities.

Under his orders, subpoenas were issued against a number of persons not named who are suspected of having information concerning a pool that has been formed to drive up the price of cotton, and the federal grand jury in New York will listen to the testimony with a view to bringing in indictments that will break up the pool.

Department is Reluctant.

Great reluctance was preserved at the department of justice with regard to the proceedings, which is known, however, to be a part of the campaign which the administration has begun against gambling in futures, bucket trading and similar forms of gambling. In announcing the grand jury proceeding, the following statement was issued by W. S. Kenyon, assistant to the attorney general:

"In connection with the discussion over the prevalent high prices of food and other commodities, the attention of the attorney general has been directed to the alleged existence of certain pools and combinations operating in various commodities and their effect upon interstate commerce.
Information has been laid before him indicating the fact that a combination has been formed between a number of operators to buy up all of the remaining unused raw cotton produced in the United States during the crop year 1909-1910 and that, as the result of the operations of this pool, the price of this cotton has already been advanced so largely in excess of the normal price that the cotton manufacturers had greatly reduced their manufacture rather than buy at this exorbitant price, throwing out of employment upward of 25 per cent. of the cotton mill operators of the United States, thus resulting in the monopoliza-tion of the entire visible supply of raw cotton in the market and the diminution in the commerce of cotton goods. The attorney general thereupon gave instructions to have the matter investigated by the grand jury in the southern district of New York, and subpoenas were issued which mark the commencement of a thorough investigation by the government of the alleged pool.

"It is anticipated that interesting disclosures will be made into the composition and management of this combination."

Consternation in New York.

New York, April 19.—There was consternation in the cotton brokerage houses and an element of distrust in the stock brokerage houses, which caused declines of from one to two points throughout the stock exchange list, when the news of Attorney General Wickham's proposed inquiry became public.

The greatest reticence is observed on the part of the government as to the identity of the persons subpoenaed, but it is known that they include some of the most prominent men in the cotton market: Messrs. Eugene Scobie, James Patten, Edward S. Mules and Rothschild. Members of the firm of Carpenter & Baggett, S. L. Weld &
Co., Craig & Jenks, and Springs & Co. have, it is said, been served.

TOT'S LETTER FREES MOTHER.

Minnesota Governor Pardons Woman
After Receiving Girl's Plea.

St. Paul, Minn., April 19.—Governor
Eberhart wrote a letter to Miss Ruth Coffey, eleven years old, daughter of Mrs. Ella Coffey, six months' convict in the state prison at Stillwater, telling the little girl her mother had been freed. The little girl wrote Governor Eberhart last week asking for the pardon of her mother, and this dainty but wandering letter was the only appeal the state pardon board heard.

Governor Eberhart in his reply said he hoped the mother and father would hereafter appreciate what "priceless jewels children, like yourself, should be to them." The governor said he entrusted the future life of her mother to her daughter and wanted to hear when she proved successful.

WET HAT HITS WIRE; BOY DIES.

South Bend (Ind.) Youth Electrocutted
Following Snowstorm.

South Bend, April 19.—Albert E.
Kable, sixteen years old, was electrocuted when his hat, wet by rain, came in contact with a sagging guy wire attached to an electric light pole. The guy wire had become crossed with a live wire. Snow, which fell here to a depth of five inches, was responsible for the sagging of the wire. Young Kable's death was instantaneous.

D. & H. Employees Vote to Strike.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 19.—The conductors, trainmen, engineers, firemen and telegraphers of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company have voted to go out on strike unless the company grants the scale of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Women who are critical in the selection of their White Goods will find it advantageous to come to The Big Store, because the variety offered for selection is so much greater and because we have set certain high standards for quality and every piece must measure up to the line before it is accepted.

Our output is so much larger than ordinary stores that we must buy in very large quantities to supply the demand and in so doing we are usually able to underbuy, thus affording better qualities for the money than is usual.

Proper descriptions are inadequate to do justice to the many fine sheer cloths, both of American make and imported, but we wish to mention one in particular.

Sherrette

a new cloth for the 1910 season. It is a sheer fabric, semi-lustrous. It has the appearance of linen with linen's strength and durability. No matter how often you launder Sherrette it always looks fresh and new.

For white dresses, lingerie of all kinds, shirt waists, baby clothes and evening frocks there is no material at the price that equals Sherrette in daintiness and durability.

Do not let the low cost of Sherrette prejudice you. Compare it with expensive fabrics for texture—for strength—for finish and beauty. 27-inch to 40-inch.

After the degree work was finished at 7 o'clock, an elegant spread prepared by the ladies of St. Victor's church was enjoyed to the utmost by four hundred and eighty guests. The tables, of which there were seven, were profusely decorated with carnations, roses and sunflowers. Toasts were responded to after the banquet was at an end. District Deputy J. J. A UNIVERSAL FOOD

Following Nature's Footsteps.

"I have a boy, two years old, weighing forty pounds and in perfect health who has been raised on Grape-Nuts and milk."
"This is an ideal food and evidently furnishes the elements necessary for a baby as well as for adults. We have used Grape-Nuts in large quantities and greatly to our advantage."
One advantage about Grape-Nuts food is that it is pre-digested in the process of manufacture; that is, the starch contained in the wheat and barley is transformed into a form of sugar by the same method as the process is carried out in the human body. It is, by the use of modern machinery, long exposure to moderate warmth, which breaks the starch in the grains and makes the remarkable change from starch to sugar.

Therefore, the most delicate stomach can handle Grape-Nuts and the food is quickly absorbed into the blood and tissue, certain parts of it going directly to building and nourishing the brain and nerve centers.

When Women Ruled.
It seems to be pretty well established that originally the matters of relationship and descent, along with all that followed, were determined through the female line. Kinship, and therefore property, was governed by the mother. Hence the power of the early woman. When a young woman got married she took her husband home with her, and if he proved unworthy it was within her power to cast him out. The woman was the "boss," and when she said "Go" he had to get out. It is comparatively late in the history of human society that we first see the change from female to male headship in the matter of kinship and inheritance, and in the consequent transfer of the power and importance from the woman to the man.

There is something wrong with you if you awake in the morning with a bad taste in the mouth, if you are depressed, uneasy and despondent. When you are in such a condition you are unfit to do your best work, you have lost your interest in the problems of life and are uninteresting and unengaging to those about you. There is something wrong with you, not with others, not with life, nor with your fate or lot, but simply with you. It may be physical, it may be mental; it may be with your own character. Possibly your liver is out of order and you need to consult your family doctor, but in nine cases out of ten the trouble can be traced to your mental attitude. Take hold of yourself; change the current of your thought by recalling some good deed, some joyful experience. Force yourself to look for the good, the beautiful and true. MAY FIRST COMES ON

SUNDAY THIS YEAR

Old Father Time Plays and Expensive Joke on Persons Planning To Move This Spring.
We always consider Father Time as a sober, sensible old gentleman, with a grain of salt who watches the seasons all his year after year as the sands of life run through the hour glass. However, he must have given a chuckle of glee when he made up the calendar for Nineteen Ten and placed Sunday on top of May first. Of course the average citizen knows that May first is the annual migration day for all transient householders. Many have doubtless most thoughtlessly made arrangements to move on May first without even consulting the calendar to see what day of the week it came on. While this does not make so much difference to Janesville residents in cities like Chicago it makes the moving most expensive. Double time is charged for Sunday work and the owners of the big vans that will move a whole household in one load are doubtless as tickled over Father Time's joke as the old gentleman himself is. However, in Janesville the moving day will probably be the Saturday before or the Monday after the first.

Being made from pure, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc. it offers a whole new, healthful, food-like drink, that will actually strengthen, and fortify and invigorate in a minute. And its taste and aroma is exquisite. Besides costing only 25 to 30 minutes boiling is at all necessary. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. It does not injure your teeth or your children. James L. Drunkards in Scotland.
Drunkennes in Scotland appears to be on the increase, according to the judicial statistics for 1906 just issued. In some instances the drunkenness reached absolutely appalling degrees. In the little town of Blairgowrie, in Perthshire, with a population of well under 5,000, the proportion of cases of drunkenness reached 1,012 per 10,000 of the population, or one case for every ten men, women and children of the inhabitants.

dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

Gives no outside heat, no smell, no smoke. It will cook the biggest dinner without heating the kitchen or the cook. It is immediately lighted and immediately extinguished. It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till the fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

"Elizabeth," said I, "you shall have your little brooch tonight, if you will promise me now to be ready and waiting for me at six. I will have the brooch."

It seemed to me that this new self of Elizabeth's—warmer, yielding, adorable—was slowly going away from me again, and that her old self, none the less, was still there, but more logical and questioning, had taken its old place again. She put both her hands on my arm now and looked me fairly in the face, where the color still proclaimed some sort of guilt on my part, although my heart was clean and innocent as hers.

"Nicholas," she said, "Come To Night."

"Nicholas," she said, "come to night. Bring me my little brooch—and bring—"

"The minister! If I do that, Elizabeth, you will marry me then?"

"Yes!" she whispered softly.

And all the din and babble of that motley throng I heard the word, low as it was, I have never heard a voice like Elizabeth's.

An instant later, I knew not quite how, her hand was away from my arm, in that of Aunt Betty, and they were passing toward the main door, leaving me standing with joy and doubt mingled in my mind.

CHAPTER VIII.

Mr. Calhoun Accepts.

A woman's tongue is her sword, that she never lets rust—Alfred Keeler.

I struggled among three courses. The impulses of my heart, joined to some presence of trouble, bade me to follow Elizabeth. My duty ordered me to hasten to Mr. Calhoun. My interest demanded that I should tarry, for I was sure that the Baroness von Ritz would make no merely idle request in these circumstances. Hesitating thus, I lost sight of her in the throng. So I concluded I would obey the mandate of duty, and turned to the elements of my problem resolved themselves into one. I saw the tall figure of Mr. Calhoun himself coming up the walk toward me.

"Ah," said he briefly, "then my niece said you were here."

"I was starting for you this moment, sir," I replied.

"Wait for a moment. I counted on finding you here. Matters have changed."

I turned with him and we entered again the east room, where Mr. Tyler still prolonged the official greeting of the curious, the obsequious, or the banal persons who passed. Mr. Calhoun stood apart for a time, watching the progress of this purely American function. It was some time ere the groups thinned. This latter fact usually would have ended the reception, since it is not etiquette to suppose that the president can lack an audience; but today Mr. Tyler lingered. At last through the thinning throng he caught sight of the distinctive figure of Mr. Calhoun. For the first time his own face assumed a natural expression. He stopped the line for an instant, and with a raised hand beckoned to my chief.

At this we dropped in at the tail of the line, Mr. Calhoun in passing grasping almost as many hands as Mr. Tyler. When at length we reached the president's position, the latter greeted him and added a whispered word. An instant later he turned abruptly, ending the reception with a deep bow, and retired into the room from which he had earlier emerged.

Mr. Calhoun turned now to me with a request to follow him, and we passed through the door where the president had vanished. Directed by attendants, we were presently ushered into yet another room, which at that time served the president as his cabinet room, a place for meeting persons of distinction who called upon business.

As we entered I saw that it was already occupied. Mr. Tyler was grasping the hand of a portly personage, whom I knew to be none other than Mr. Pakenham. So much might have been expected. What was not to have been expected was the presence of another—none less than the Baroness von Ritz!

So we were, apparently to understand that my lady was here as open friend of England! Of course, I needed no word from Mr. Calhoun to remind me that we must seem ignorant of this lady, of her character, and of her reputed relations with the British foreign office.

"I pray you be seated, Mr. Pakenham," said Mr. Tyler, and he gestured also to us others to take chairs near his table. Mr. Pakenham, in rather a lofty fashion, it seemed to me, obeyed the polite request, but scarcely had seated himself ere he again rose with an important clearing of his throat.

"Your excellency," said he, "my majestic—the queen of—England's wish is somewhat anticipated by my visit here today. I hasten only to put in the most prompt and friendly form the majestic's desires, which I am sure formally will be expressed in the first mails from England. We deplore this most unhappy accident on your warship Princeton, which has come so near working irreparable injury to this country."

"Sir," said Mr. Tyler, rising, with a deep bow, "the courtesy of your personal presence is most gratifying. Allow me to express that more intimate and warmer feeling of friendship for yourself which comes through our long association with you. This respect and admiration are felt by myself and my official family for you and the great power which you represent."

Each having thus delivered himself of words which meant nothing, both now seated themselves and proceeded to look mightily grave. For myself, I stole a glance from the tail of my eye toward the Baroness von Ritz. She sat erect in her chair, a figure of easy grace and dignity, but on her face was nothing one could read to tell who she was or why she was here.

"I seize upon this opportunity, Mr. Pakenham," said Mr. Tyler presently, with a smile which he meant to set all at ease and to soften as much as possible the severity of that which was to follow. "I gladly take this opportunity to mention in an informal way my hope that this matter which was already inaugurated by Mr. Upshur before his untimely death may come to perfectly pleasant consummation. I refer to the question of Texas."

"I beg pardon, your excellency," rejoined Mr. Pakenham, half rising. "Your meaning is not perfectly clear to me."

The same icy smile sat upon Mr. Tyler's face as he went on: "I cannot believe that your government can wish to interfere in matters upon this continent to the extent of taking the position of open ally of the Republic of Mexico, a power so recently at war upon our own borders, with the brave Texans who have left our flag to set up, through fair conquest, a republic of their own."

The mottled face of Mr. Pakenham assumed a yet deeper red. "As to that your excellency," said he, "your remark is, as you say, quite informal, or coarse—that is to say, as I may state—"

"Quite so," rejoined Mr. Tyler gravely. "The note of my Lord Aberdeen to us, none the less, in the point of its bearing upon the question of slavery in Texas, appears to this government as an expression which ought to be disavowed by your own government. Do I make myself quite clear?"

With John Calhoun present, Mr. Tyler could at times assume a courage though he had it not.

Mr. Pakenham's face glowed a deeper red. "I am not at liberty to discuss my Lord Aberdeen's wishes in this matter," he said. "We met here upon a purely informal matter, and—"

"I have only ventured to hope," rejoined Mr. Tyler, "that the personal kindness of your own heart might inspire you in so grave a matter as that which may lead to war between two powers."

"War, sir, war!" Mr. Pakenham went wholly purple in his surprise and spring to his feet. "War!" he repeated once more. "As though there could be any hope—"

"Quite right, sir," said Mr. Tyler grimly. "As though there could be any hope for us save in our own conduct of our own affairs, without any interference from any foreign power!"

I knew it was John Calhoun speaking these words, not Mr. Tyler. I saw Mr. Calhoun's keen, cold eyes fixed closely upon the face of his president. The consternation created by the latter's words was plainly visible.

"Of course, this conversation is entirely irregular—I mean to say, wholly unofficial, your excellency!" heated Pakenham. "It takes no part in our records."

"Assuredly not," said Mr. Tyler. "I only hope the question may never come to a matter of record at all. Once our country knows that dictation has been attempted with us, even by England herself, the north will join the south in resentment. Even now, in readiness at the fabled attitude of England toward Mexico, the west raises the demand that we shall end the joint occupancy of Oregon with Great Britain. Do you perchance know the watchword which is now on the popular tongue west of the Alleghenies? It bids fair to become an American 'Marseillaise.'"

"I must confess my ignorance," rejoined Mr. Pakenham.

"Our backwoodsmen have invented a phrase which runs 'Fifty-Four Forty or Fight!'"

"I beg pardon, I am sure, your excellency."

"It means that if we conclude to terminate the very unsatisfactory middle along the Columbia river—a stream which our mariners first explored, as we contend—and if we conclude to dispute with England as well regarding our delimitations on the southwest, where she has even less right to speak, then we shall contend for all that territory, not only up to the Columbia, but north to the Russian line, the parallel of 54 degrees and 40 minutes! We claim that we once bought Texas clear to the Rio Grande, from Napoleon, although the foolish treaty with Spain in 1819 clouded our title—in the belief of our Whig friends, who do not desire more slave territory. Even the Whigs think that we own Oregon by virtue of first navigation of the Columbia. Both Whigs and Democrats now demand Oregon north to 54 degrees, 40 minutes. The alternative? My Lord Aberdeen surely makes no deliberate bid to hear it!"

"Oh fight!" exclaimed Pakenham. "God bless my soul! Fight us?"

Mr. Tyler flushed. "Such things have been," said he with dignity.

At this astounding speech the British minister sat dumfounded. This air of courage and confidence on the part of Mr. Tyler himself was something foreign to his record. I knew the reason for his boldness. John Calhoun sat at his right hand.

At least, the meaning of this sudden assault was too much for England's representative. Perhaps, indeed, the Berserker blood of our frontier spoke in Mr. Tyler's gaze. That we would fight indeed was true enough.

"At this point, your excellency, the dignity of her majesty's service would lead me to ask excuse," rejoined Mr. Pakenham formally, "were it not for one fact, which, in short, news which will appear full warrant for any communication thus far made by her majesty's government. I can assure you that there has come into the possession of this lady, whose able services I venture to solicit here in her presence, a communication from the Republic of Texas to the government of England. That communication is done by no less a hand than that of the attache for the Republic of Texas, Mr. Van Zandt himself."

There was, I think, no other formal invitation for the Baroness von Ritz to speak; but now she arose, swept a courtesy first to Mr. Tyler and then to Mr. Pakenham and Mr. Calhoun.

"It is not to be expected, your excellency and gentlemen," said she, "that I can add anything of value here." Her eyes were demurely downcast.

"We do not doubt your familiarity with many of these late events," encouraged Mr. Tyler.

"True," she continued, "the note of my Lord Aberdeen is to-day the property of the streets, and of this I have some knowledge; I can see, also, difficulty in its reception among the courteous gentlemen of America. But, as to any written communication from Mr. Van Zandt, there must be some mistake!"

Juneville Daily Gazette, April 19, 1920.—Jeatings.—There was a lively gathering at a German hotel in this city on Sunday night. A number of autotic gentlemen of a carnival turn of mind had gathered in the bar room and parlour of "swi lager" several dozens or more and got decidedly bold. The proprietor of the house having retired requested them to make use of a row, but the demand was not complied with, and he finally lost his temper, and seizing a shotgun he made for "the crowd. As he was passing through the door into the room where they were, he accidentally dropped the gun, but his guests being blood in his eye, rushed to the help, he following, and saying about in a vigorous style. His wife came to his aid, and her downy cheeks and nose stopping to don any superfluous clothing came down on the common enemy "like a wolf on the lamb," and the rout was complete, and the police reigned in the hasty, a perilous runaway occurred yesterday afternoon, which was inaugurated by a large and powerful bay horse belonging to Dr. Palmer. The first great rule of health—"Daily movement of the bowels." Ask your doctor. If this is not so. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. Sold for sixty years.

The doctor had occasion to go onto the race, and while doing his errand hitched his horse near the warehouse of Morse, Hanson & Co. While in the building he glanced out of the window and saw a boy untie the hitch halter. He hastened out as soon as possible but the mischief was done, the horse being under full headway before he could reach him. The animal ran furiously down the race toward Milwaukee street and just as he was turning out that thoroughfare the wheel of the buggy came in contact with a big boulder, and the vehicle upset and was badly damaged. A rather serious matter, inasmuch as it cost $400 and had been run only about two weeks. The noise occasioned by the smashup frightened the horse of Mrs. Chauncey Stevens—which was attached to a buggy in which were Mrs. S. and a man named Dams—and the animal became unmanageable and ran. Mrs. Stevens jumped from the vehicle, and escaped injury, but Dams kept his seat and when the buggy was smashed against the Schuyler House pump—as it was most effectually—his shoulder blade was broken.

CAUSE OF ECZEMA EXPLAINED

After years of debate, medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy, it is only the skin that is diseased.

Hence, scientists are now agreed that to cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can say with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

A curiously marked stone has been found at Colebrook, Devonshire, England, in the middle of a wheat rick, and geologists who have seen it express the opinion that the markings on the stone were caused by rats using it to grind their teeth, which other wise grew to an inordinate length. Some rats have been known to starve owing to their teeth getting too long.
